

It's Over

Daniel Johnston

You broke my heart in two
And I'm leaving this half with you
To remind you what you done to me honey
It's over, it's over
No tears to cry, no reason why
It's over, it's over
No tears to cry, no sun to shine
I seen your picture
I mean, I've kissed you
If I had my own way
I'll kiss you again
And again and again
It's over, it's over
No tears to cry, no sun to shine
Over and over
I tell myself, I tell myself
It's over, it's over
No tears to cry, no sun to shine
It's over
Over
