

Only Missing You

Daniel Johnston

Don't know, wish I did
Wish I had someone else instead
Can't stop, wish I could
Nothing else in my empty head
Only missing you

Seems like a million years
Must have been a million tears
I couldn't cry, don't know why
An so [I saw you?] as time goes by
And only missing you

I'm not lonely, I'm not sad
I have the good times we had
But still, there's a hill
Locking my view from my window sill
And only missing you

So I just am
A contemporary historian
I got your memory, I got your love
Locked away in a museum
And only missing you
Only missing you
