

Villain

Daniel Johnston

I'm walking the floor
All over town
Oh how the people stare

I have my heart on my sleeve
And it sure is a mess
Walking the floor over you

I'm talking to the walls
But it's no use
They've heard it all before

I'm climbing a tree
Just hook and me
Hangin like a dead man

I know that you
Can understand
You never offered me a (your) hand

All through the years
You had me deceived
I never would have believed

What you've done to me
You'll do to others
You come on like a lover

But I'll let them know
The truth about you
You'll never work in this town again

You'll pay for what you've done
Because you are the one
Who deserves the worst

And I will return
To the one I was with first
