

Wedding Ring Bells Blues

Daniel Johnston

Wedding ring bells have got me down
Wedding ring bells have got me the blues in this town
She was young, and I was free
I really thought that she could help me
But the blues walked in, and I told her way back when I told her
I can't take it no more
I just can't take it no more
Wedding ring bells have sent me to hell Wedding ring bells have got me the blues that might sell
She was my love and I was her man
We really seemed to understand
But the blues walked in, some kind of family plan
And I was out
I just can't take it no more
I just can't take it no more
Wedding ring bells have got me sad somehow Wedding ring bells, all my suffering and how
She was a beauty and I was in love
I told her that I really loved her, what more could I do
But the blues walked in, another man for her again
Oh no, I just can't take it no more
I just can't take it no more
Wedding ring blues have got me paranoid
Wedding ring bells, beware of the void
(It could happen again)
if it was love I was giving, all the music I was making
I had to surrender to her evil game
And the blues walked in, and I wanted to be famous
So I went
I just can't take it no more
Take it no more
Wedding ring bells
