Worried Shoes

Daniel Johnston

I took my lucky break and I broke it in two Put on my worried shoes My worried shoes And my shoes took me so many miles and they never wore out My worried shoes My worried shoes 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 My worried shoes I made a mistake and I never forgot I tied knots in the laces of My worried shoes And with every step that I'd take I'd remember my mistake As I marched further and further away In my worried shoes 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 My worried shoes And my shoes took me down a crooked path Away from all welcome mats My worried shoes And then one day I looked around and I found the sun shining down And I took off my worried shoes And the feet broke free I didn't need to wear Then I knew the difference between worrying and caring 'Cause I've got a lot of walking to do And I don't want to wear My worried shoes
