

different man

Daniel Leggs

I hear angels singing tonight
Am I underdressed?
A fool for believing on a
Dare not to impress

So, I try to keep it lowkey
I wanna do what I'm designed
I'd like to find a place to be myself
But you really like the old me
You're taking two steps back behind the city line
Where I can't walk

In a different city
Lights, they move so quickly
Dancing on my silhouette
And I'm a different man
They look so pretty
Hope they're coming with me
Dancing on my silhouette
And I'm a different man

No fear, but a feeling for my life
I cannot seem to express (Oh, Lordy, no)
Time to get a little move on, baby
So hard to leave, but I've got secrets that I'd like to forget

So, I try to keep it lowkey
I wanna do what I'm designed
I'd like to find a place to be myself
But you really like the old me
You're taking two steps back behind the city line
Where I can't walk

In a different city
Lights, they move so quickly
Dancing on my silhouette
And I'm a different man
They look so pretty
Hope they're coming with me
Dancing on my silhouette
And I'm a different-

In a different city
Lights, they move so quickly
Dancing on my silhouette
And I'm a different man
They look so pretty
Hope they're coming with me
Dancing on my silhouette
And I'm a different man

Yes, I'm a different man
Feel like a different man
Now I'm a different man
I'm a different man
