

settle down

Daniel Leggs

Are you mad
Are you mad at me
Just a tad
Would you happily be in some place
Where you never see my face

Hate to nag
But do you pack your things
Everytime I fill the trash
And I pack the sink up with plates
Why am I such a big disgrace

Everyday, every night
With myself I like to fight
Second guessing, second guessing
Second guessing my whole life
I'm afraid I might drown
With my feet stuck on the ground
Now I'm stressing, yes I'm stressing, oh I'm

Hey, you
Why don't you settle down
Why don't you settle down
Hey, you
Why don't you settle down

Ok I'm settled down now
Oh shit now I'm stressed out
I wish I loved life and everything it brings
But it seems I'm only happy when I sing

I'm a grownup, but I'm immature
I'd like to go upstairs, but I'm not so sure
I think a lot about the light before I shut it off
I think I'd like to take the night if I could get it off

Everyday, every night
With myself I like to fight
Second guessing, second guessing
Second guessing my whole life
I'm afraid I might drown
With my feet stuck on the ground
Now I'm stressing, yes I'm stressing, oh I'm

Hey, you
Why don't you settle down
Why don't you settle down
Hey, you
Why don't you settle down

Hey, you
Why don't you settle down
Why don't you settle down
Hey, you
Why don't you settle down
