

Tokyo

Daniel Leggs

Watching the moonlight
I'm tired of nothing new
But that's what it looks like
Again
Again

I got a window with no view
Try not to be so blue
But that's what it looks like
Again

Maybe, I could leave this town
Maybe, I could figure out

There's something that I wanna know
Something that I wanna change
I've never been to Tokyo
Buy maybe that'll be the place
I say too much and just for once I'll fall in love and fuck it up
I really wanna start it over
I really wanna start again

Change my line
And burn my clothes
Might waste some time
In Mexico
Cut all my ties
And not go home
Again

If I could only leave this town
Maybe, I could figure out

There's something that I wanna know
Something that I wanna change
I've never been to Tokyo
Buy maybe that'll be the place
I say too much and just for once I'll fall in love and fuck it up
I really wanna start it over
I really wanna start again

There's something that I wanna know
Something that I wanna change
I've never been to Tokyo
Buy maybe that'll be the place
I say too much and just for once I'll fall in love and fuck it up
I really wanna start it over
I really wanna start again

I really wanna start it over
I really wanna start again
