

Everything I Need

Daniel Merriweather

There's a reason that the water's in a valley, yeah
There's a river that will flow for all of time
You a leaf that floats above the silver surface, yeah
You a rock that splits the water [?]

No more wine, [?] the moonshine
No more president that should never have won
All these flags all should be burned, God hallelujah
If you know what's best you'll turn and face the sun

Everything I need
Everything that I need is with you
Everything I need
Is this hope, and this love, and this truth
Everything I need
Everything that I need is with you
Everything I need
Is this hope, and this love

There's a reason that [?]
There's a reason that we [?]
Do you wanna lose your legs for freedom
Or will you stay and speak of those who've been before, yeah

Ooh, inside your heart [?]
Oh, inside your heart a crucifix and thorns
Deep inside your heart are all of your ancestors

Everything I need
Everything that I need is with you
Everything I need
Is this hope, and this love, and this truth
Everything I need
Everything that I need is with you
Everything I need
Is this hope, and this love

Pray
Baby, just pray
Nothing's gonna stop you [?]
(Is gonna stop you, stop you, stop you)
Pray (just pray, just pray)
Lady, just pray, uh
Nothing's gonna stop you [?]
(Is gonna stop you, stop you, stop you)

Pray
Baby, just pray (just pray, just pray)
Nothing's gonna stop you, no
Nothing's gonna stop you, no
