

Doleful

Daniel Schuhmacher

Staring out my house
Seeing people all the round
On the move without any fear
I open my window
Feel the fresh air
It smells like life
But now I'am here
some kind of isolated

Oh I can hear the children laughing
For them ist life still nothing
Hard to take

For Me it fades away so slowly
But maybe someday
It won't touch me anymore
For me it changed all so damn quickly
That's a part of my life
That makes me so doleful

Staring at the celing
Thinking of the buss so far
Seems like I'm lost

For Me it fades away so slowly
But maybe someday
It won't touch me anymore
For me it changed all so damn quickly
That's a part of my life
That makes me so doleful

No shame
in the pain
My heart
Needs e restart
And who knows what will be

For Me it fades away so slowly
But maybe someday
It won't touch me anymore
For me it changed all so damn quickly
That's a part of my life
That makes me so doleful
Doleful
Doleful
Doleful

Staring out my house
Seeing people all around
Oh they mode without any fear
