

Rolling Stone

Daniel Schuhmacher

We're crawling through the underground
Searching in private for the killer sound
So lonely
So lonely
The time has come, this is my revenge
All you haters and slashers fade away
You will be lonely
So lonely

I came in here with many visions
And I will leave with a new perception
But a piece of my spirit stays here in melancholia

I am a rolling stone
You can't stop me
I'm bathing in electricity
I am a rolling stone
Get out my way
I won't be lonely
Not lonely
Never again

These words keep flowing from my mouth
Yeah I could shock this whole crowd
Like I'm still lonely
So lonely
You can call it self-therapy
A schizophrenic, yeah that is me
So lonely
So lonely

I came in here and had to confess
My life, my rules I had to pass this test
My whole world was made of melancholia

I am a rolling stone
You can't stop me
I'm bathing in electricity
I am a rolling stone
Get out my way
I won't be lonely
Not lonely
Never again

We're breaking down the walls of Stereotypes cause we are
Yeah we are not lonely

I know
I will go on
I don't turn around
I feel like entering a higher ground
I won't be lonely
Not not not not lonely

I am a rolling stone
You can't stop me

I'm bathing in electricity
I am a rolling stone
Get out my way
I won't be lonely
Not lonely
Never again
