I'm expensive
If you got time I wanna have it
Little selfish
Need my space but then I
Want you in it

Won't you stick by and meet my demons
I know we both got shit to deal with
Trust that I know what it's worth
Daddy put pennies to work
Back in 1987, bringing that direct input

I don't need diamonds on my wrist
Diamonds on my thighs
Diamonds on the floor, we making love on tonight
Just give me a kiss
Take me for a ride
If you got no wheels then I can kick it on my bike
Head up on a spin
Glitter on my eyes
Rub them till there's nothing left but sentiment, oh, sentiment

En verdad, no toma mucho
Solo son preguntas bien simples (oh)
