

Come Around

Daniela Andrade

Running out of wind
You took it out of me, fell out of reality
Counting all my sins
You make a felony out of all the good in me
Is this the game we play?
Hiding from each other, no one won't face the other
There's nothing left to say
Holding onto nothing but faith

Cause I don't see the light in your heart
And when you come around it feels dark
I don't see the light in your heart
So darling, I'm leaving
You're not gonna drag me

Shivers down my spine
Taken into places, and I can't hardly take it
You played your cards so right
Left this to a gamble, and both forgot to handle
And hold each other tight
Lying to each other, no one won't face the other
Baby, I'll be on my way

Cause I don't see the light in your heart
And when you come around it feels dark
I don't see the light in your heart
So darling, I'm leaving
You're not gonna drag me down

Though I really wanna stay in your arms
(I wish I could tell you would stay in your arms)
I don't wanna be the one you take down
(I swear you won't take me down)
And it's hard to see it all fall apart
(I don't wanna see it all fall apart)
Cause nobody wants to be alone in the dark (Nobody wants to be alone in the dark)

Cause I don't see the light in your heart
And when you come around it feels dark
I don't see the light in your heart
So darling, I'm leaving
You're not gonna drag me
Cause I don't see the light in your heart
And when you come around it feels dark
I don't see the light in your heart
So darling, I'm leaving
You're not gonna drag me down
