

Gentlemen

Daniela Andrade

My day is well into the afternoon
And nothing's going right
The weeks are flying past
I'm in over my head
And I can't get you off my mind

It was the night I chose my favourite dress
And you were wearing your best suit
It was about that time when everyone was sound asleep
And I was up talking to you

No one told me the right way to fall
To fall deep in love
But you held my heart in the right ways
Just like a gentleman

And it's so easy to get back to you
And harder to get by
Cause there's just something about the way you say my name
Softly through the telephone lines
Ooooh

No one told me the right way to fall
To fall deep in love
But you held my heart in the right ways
Just like a gentleman
Ooooh

No one told me the right way to fall
To fall deep in love
But you held my heart in the right ways
Just like a gentleman
Just like a gentleman
Oooooh