

Sound

Daniela Andrade

Sounds in my head, where they go now
Words in my bed, they don't quiet down
I know it's nothing to worry myself about
But I haven't slept, I haven't slept

Except for the beat when it goes and my eyes find a close
Steady the pound, move to the sound
Cause the music, it knows what your heart won't let go of
Steady the pound, move to the sound of love
The sound of love, the sound of love
The sound, the sound

Courage it took, but I'm here now
Wiping the dirt, sweat the fever out
I know it's nothing to worry myself about
Hands on my chest, doing my best

So feel it, the beat when it goes and your eyes find a close
Steady the pound, move to the sound
Cause the music, it knows what your heart won't let go of
Steady the pound, move to the sound of love
The sound of love, the sound of love
The sound, the sound

So feel it, the beat when it goes and your eyes find a close
Steady the pound, move to the sound
Cause the music, it knows what your heart won't let go of
Steady the pound, move to the sound of love
The sound of love, the sound of love
The sound, the sound
So feel it, the beat when it goes and your eyes find a close
Steady the pound, move to the sound
Cause the music, it knows what your heart won't let go of
Steady the pound, move to the sound of love
The sound of love, the sound of love
The sound, the sound
