

Big Blue '82

Danielle Dax

A furtive glance
In the cool of evening
While the insects buzz
In the tattered screening
High above the world
I hear the yellow eagle call
Waiting for the night to fall

Chorus:

Oh the sky is blue
When I think of you
And I couldn't get much higher
And you make my day
When you turn to say
That I set your heart on fire

Fecund desire
Burning like fire
Feel the purple passion pull
Mellow as the moonshine
Sparkle like a new wine
Baby you just got it all
Senses overloading
Drowning in a pool of love
Sweet temptation
Never gonna get enough

Chorus

Sharp as a blade-
Blasted high with danger
Flexing intense
With the muscle of love

Chorus

Sex beat, big time
Pumping up the love line
Clearcut straight to the nerve
Pleasures untold
Silver and gold
Everything that we deserve
Senses overloading
Drowning in a pool of love
Sweet temptation
Never gonna get enough

Chorus
