Yeah, you done fucked around, and you lost me, now you mad
So sad, I bet it's so hard
To see my pics up when they post me on the 'Gram
Oh, yeah, baby, be like

"Damn, Dani done, Dani done made it"
It sucks you lost a girl that turned out to be famous
I bet it sucks to hear my song on every playlist
And now you gotta go home to something basic

Wow, how you feelin' now?
You used to put me down
And now you're tryna come around
I can't lie, you a bitch, nigga
Nobody fucks with you
I can't remember the last time I even looked at your Instagram
You open your app, and there I am
So I'ma just keep hangin' plaques on the wall
Don't bother, don't call
I don't need your love, I don't need your love no more
Baby be like

"Damn, Dani done, Dani done made it"
Sucks you lost a girl that turned out to be famous
I bet it sucks to hear my song on every playlist
And now you gotta go home to something basic

Damn, you used to be my man
Then your baby mama thought the same
How we both fall for your game?
I, I wanna know where is the same shit, but I do it
But it's over and over, bitch, I'm lit, go find a new game
Yeah, you'll never find a bitch like me
My mama told me, "Be a wifey"
A the baddest bitch in a white T
I sweat they tryna be like me
I know it's hard, it's all your fault
I don't need your love, I don't need your love no more
Baby be like

"Damn, Dani done, Dani done made it"
Sucks you lost a girl that turned out to be famous
I bet it sucks to hear my song on every playlist
And now you gotta go home to something basic
