

Keeper

DaniLeigh

Switch up in a heartbeat
Lose you like a car key
You don't wanna start with me
Wish 'em well, kill 'em softly
The way I'm bred, it ain't no soft wheat
Woke up dressed in my wife beater
He text me, told me I'm a keeper

Don't know what to say
Let me breathe, get me space
'Fore I suffocate
It blew up in your face
Just like a grenade
And you thought I'd stay
But you read me all wrong
So I turned the page
Poison ivy and I'm on point, spiky
You know I'm a hot head, got me talking spicy
Better check your tone, talk to me nicely
Thought you had the juice, bet I crush your Hi-C

Switch up in a heartbeat
Lose you like a car key
You don't wanna start with me
Wish 'em well, kill 'em softly
The way I'm bred, it ain't no soft wheat
Woke up dressed in my wife beater
