

Old Me

DaniLeigh

You need to take your time if you really tryna know me
They tryna be Dani man these bitches tryna clone me
And I don't got the time got 'em looking at my Rollie
And if you fucking with me then you fucking with the old me

That's the old me, that's the old me
And I ain't fucking with nobody that still owes me
And people poppin outta nowhere like they know
You ain't the homie, you ain't the homie

Put it all in the past, letting go of the baggage
Every move I'm making now, I'm gonna do it happy
Lost so many friends that I used to call a family
Abra cadabra, they all faker than magic

It takes a lot to do this, and I still do this Trying not to lose it, I'm going through it
They wanna see me change, they talking down my name
Just tryna make a name, hope you could do the same

You need to take your time if you really tryna know me
They tryna be Dani man these bitches tryna clone me
And I don't got the time got 'em looking at my Rollie
And if you fucking with me then you fucking with the old me

That's the old me, that's the old me
And I ain't fucking with nobody that still owes me
And people poppin outta nowhere like they know
You ain't the homie, you ain't the homie
