Aye, baby

All these dudes be the same
Just different names
Put they mama to shame for the way they was raised
All these dudes be the same

All these dudes be the same
Just different names
Put they mama to shame for the way they was raised
All these dudes be the same
These dudes be the same

All this disrespect, I won't take it, I ain't foolish
Got me lookin' in the mirror like, like
Who dis?
Quit playin' with my time I ain't new to this
I ain't lettin' shit slide just like
Glue bitch, I ain't stupid, I do this
You can't use me like these hoes that you used to doin'
You can't get mad when I think like that
'Cause I know

All these dudes be the same
Just different names
Put they mama to shame for the way they was raised
All these dudes be the same
These dudes be the same
All these dudes be the same
Just different names
Put they mama to shame for the way they was raised
All these dudes be the same
These dudes be the same

All that shit they doin' be corny

Ya'll pass hoes around like COVID yeah, yeah
Don't be hittin' my line
You can't change my mind
Bad bitch, I'm too fine
To let some fuck shit by, by
I ain't stupid, I do this
You can't use me like these hoes that you used to doin'
You can't get mad when I think like that
'Cause I know

All these dudes be the same
Just different names
Put they mama to shame for the way they was raised
All these dudes be the same
These dudes be the same
All these dudes be the same
Just different names
Put they mama to shame for the way they was raised
All these dudes be the same
