

Wrong

DaniLeigh

Why they always end up doin' wrong
Tell me that you'll never do me wrong
Don't be hiding shit up in your phone
Know that you gon' miss me when I'm gone
If I give you all my feelings in this song
Just promise that you'll never do me wrong
You know right from wrong and that shit wrong
Know that you gon' miss me when I'm gone

Boy don't do me wrong cause now I'm used to you
It's hard for me to open up to someone new
I always give my heart and in the end I lose
It's not me, it must be the type of niggas I choose

I know I know just what I want
I say this while I spark a blunt
I know you wanna stay with me
But fuck up then we history
This bullshit happens all the time
These niggas they so outta line
You fuck this up, don't call me crying
Cause this real life can't press rewind

Why they always end up doin' wrong
Tell me that you'll never do me wrong
Don't be hiding shit up in your phone
Know that you gon' miss me when I'm gone
If I give you all my feelings in this song
Just promise that you'll never do me wrong
You know right from wrong and that shit wrong
Know that you gon' miss me when I'm gone

Boy don't do me wrong cause now I'm used to you
