Burn in Hell

Danko Jones

Feeling like a black dog
Kicked round, ripped off
Torn apart and tossed out

One day gonna rise and take 'em on

Get back what I lost
Be sweet to feel it

Extract revenge and right the wrongs

Keeps happening time and time again, man
Can't keep this steady gotta square it up
All it takes to set me off is one more step
I'm gonna get mine, let my chips fall
Just behind the black line

Wheels keep on turning
As I drive down to hell
I don't mind my baby with me
Say hi to the devil and ring the bell

Gonna burn
In Hell
Gonna Burn

It's about time that I stand on my own two feet and take 'em on
Ain't scared of nothing anymore
They think they got me but surprise surprise
Gonna knock 'em out so I can even the score

Wheels keep on turning
As I drive down to hell
I don't mind my baby with me
Say hi to the devil and ring the bell

Gonna burn
In Hell
Gonna Burn
In Hell
Gonna Burn
In Hell
In Hell

Hitting and a Missing and a
Rolling and a Teasing and a
Paying what you owing
By the way you wanna please 'em

I don't give a shit
I paid my dues
I'll lick 'em if I need to
I can take 'em on and punch 'em back
And still be there to grease 'em

If you wanna I can drive
I can drive straight to hell

Cause I'm headed down there
Already don't care

Looks on fire with the
Flames getting higher
But feels so good on a Saturday night

You think your tough like a demon
But you really look scared
People picking up what's already out there

Don't blink Don't think, If you do you gonna sink
I can see it on your face and I think if s only fair

Only hit back when facts start to smell
I think I know where we're going and I ain't gonna tell

I can see you really wanna, do you wanna, do you wanna
Just sit right back and ring the bell

Wheels keep on turning
As I drive down to hell
Say hi to the devil and ring the bell

If s you and me, we're gonna bum in hell

Gonna burn
In Hell
Gonna Burn
In Hell
Gonna Burn
In Hell
In Hell
