

Going out Tonight

Danko Jones

I'm sick of love
I wanna get away from here
I'm sick of pain
I've had my share of blood and tears

I wanna run away and make it disappear
The hiding, the fighting, the lying, the fear

I'm going out tonight
Oh ey oh ey
Gonna sign my soul away
On the devil's dotted line
I'm going out tonight
Oh ey oh ey
Gonna start some fires
And set this town alight

No time is better than now
Let's hit the road and find out
One million chances
Let's roll the dice and shout out loud

I wanna run away and make it disappear
The hiding, the fighting, the lying, the fear

I'm going out tonight
Oh ey oh ey
Gonna sign my soul away
On the devil's dotted line
I'm going out tonight
Oh ey oh ey
Gonna start some fires
And set this town alight

I'm sick of love
I wanna get away from here
I'm sick of pain
I've had my share of blood and tears

I'm going out tonight
Oh ey oh ey
Gonna sign my soul away
On the devil's dotted line
I'm going out tonight
Oh ey oh ey
Gonna start some fires
