

Mango Kid

Danko Jones

All you pretty ladies pass me by and turn your heads
But when I get on stage you can't take your eyes off me
I say too little too late I'm walking on
You find another pretty boy to turn you on

I got my name on the line
My eyes on the prize
Let me tell you who I am
You want to know my name
I'm the Mango Kid

All you fellas look me up and down and cop my style
But when I see you at the club you can't look me in the eye
It's ok if you wanna look and take, take, take
Just make sure you credit the Kid who showed you how to shake

I got my name on the line
My eyes on the prize
Let me tell you who I am
You want to know my name
I'm the Mango Kid

You can call me the Mango Kid but your girl calls me baby
And I've been a rock prodigy since the age of 20
What comes outta this mouth ain't called boastin' it's truthin'

Oh yeah, oh yeah
