My Problems (Are Your Problems Now)

Danko Jones

I've got a hearing problem
The buzzing never goes away
I think it's here to stay

My eyesight's slowly leaving
From taking punches to the face
And my hair's turning grey

Complaining's easy
Do it at night and in the day
I wanna feed you
With every problem in my way
I'm gonna do it today like yesterday

And when you had enough
Of my silly stuff
I'll keep on nagging you begging to hear me through
My problems are your problems now

Hey Hey
Oh Yeah Yeah
Hey Hey
Oh Yeah Yeah

I've got a sinking feeling
These problems only escalate
They're never going away

I've got a pounding fever
It's getting higher every day
I've sealed in my fate oh yeah

And when you had enough
Of my silly stuff
I'll keep on nagging you begging to hear me through
My problems are your problems now

Hey Hey
Oh Yeah Yeah
Hey Hey
Oh Yeah Yeah

I need to feel your sympathy
I want to reveal my misery
It's hard to find a little piece of mind
But when I see you, you empathize
I'll try to resist the pain I'm feeling
And when it ends it's the beginning

And when you had enough
Of my silly stuff
I'll keep on nagging you begging to hear me through
My problems are your problems now

Hey Hey
Oh Yeah Yeah
Hey Hey

Oh Yeah Yeah
