

My Last Chance Is Gone

Danni Leigh

(Lucky Lawrence)
These darker skies
Know somehow where to find me
As far as I run
They're always right behind me
To take my hope away
With every passing day
I know from now on, my last chance is gone
I hear the voices
Saying have mercy
Behind your wicked smile
The truth lives in your eyes
This game, I cannot win
The victim once again
I know from now on, my last chance is gone
Helpless, I fall
Sweet poison pulls me under
Breath of your kiss
The magic and the wonder
It's useless to pretend
My sorrow knows no end
I know from now on, my last chance is gone
I know from now on, my last chance is gone
I know from now on, my last chance is gone
