

Do Not Worry

Danny Jones

Said I'd promise to be
My heart was telling me
I know I cannot start again alone
Everybody to me can go so suddenly
I know I have to stand
Put it on me

You believe everybody's standing brave
But down goes another
Unable to say
And everybody's stumbles start
With keeping it in not letting it out
Do not worry, be happy
Do not worry, be happy

Every night in my dreams
I know I cannot see, straight
Now I'm running from the worst of me
Every now and again
You thump into my head
Your nobody
Guess I'll see ya, see you around

You believe everybody's standing brave
But down goes another
Unable to say
And everybody's stumbles start
With keeping it in not letting it out
Do not worry, be happy
Do not worry, be happy
