

Muddy Water

Danny Jones

Mmm...

When you find yourself in a broken home
When you find you cannot be alone
Then you find your made, made outta stone
But you're wild enough to break free
Yeah, you're wild enough to break free

Being there through the grey
Being there not having to say
Just be you, and I'll be me
We'll be wild enough to break free
We'll be wild enough to break free

Stuck in the muddy water
Chained to the midnight for too long, hey
Everybody's gonna hurt sometime
Everybody's gotta learn
When your stuck in the muddy water
It ain't no place to be

Ooh...

You've bruised your mind and battled alone
And your lying there like a bag of bones
Yeah, you get what you give
And you know you gotta give it all
And be wild enough to break free
And be wild enough to break free

Stuck in the muddy water
Chained to the midnight for too long, hey
Everybody's gonna hurt sometime
Everybody's gotta learn
When your stuck in the muddy water
It ain't no place to be

(1 2 3!)

Ooh...

Stuck in the muddy water
Chained to the midnight for too long, hey
Everybody's gonna hurt sometime
Everybody's gotta learn
When your stuck in the muddy water
It ain't no place to be

Ooh...

It ain't no place to be

Ooh...

It ain't no place to be

Ooh...

It ain't no place to be

Ooh...

It ain't no place to be

Mmm...
