

On My Way

Danny Michel

I don't know which way I'm going
I can't find it on the map
Which way from is the wind blowing?

Maybe I should double back
But I should try and do my best
I could try some more I guess
If I'm lost, alone, afraid
Promise I can take a little bit of your love
On my way

I can't see around the corner
What's lying up there on the tracks?
I wish I was a fortuneteller
I'd tell her where her fortune's at

No guiding star or setting sun
No satellites or trail of crumbs
If I'm lost, alone, afraid
Promise I can take a little bit of your love
On my way
