

A58

Danny Vera

I was just drifting by
With no place to go
Watching the clouds
Far down your road

I've been here before
So many times
I can't handle no more
Any of your lies

A58
Bring me back home
You're taking too long
My patience is gone

A58
Don't take all of my time
I once was your drifter
And you know drifters pass by

I think of your bend
Near the PM Factory
Smoking kills like you do
But man they don't see

I follow your guide
Through meadows and plains
Away from my island
She's fighting the sea

A58
Bring me back home,
You're taking too long
My patience is gone

A58
Don't take all of my time
I once was your drifter
You know drifters pass by

And please don't take
Anymore of our lives
Can't deal with the pain
So keep us alive
