

Another Goodbye

Danny Vera

Do you think it was easy
Saying goodbye

Cause there's nothing as hard as telling someone a lie
Straight from the heart

And then the world came tumblin' down
There was no escapin' from what we had found

But I still believe in another goodbye
The one without questions and reasons why
Ooh I still believe
Yeah I still believe

I still feel you lead me
Through my darkest of days
When all of my brightness has turned into ashes
And has blown away

And then our world came tumblin' down
There was no escapin' from what we had found

But I still believe in another goodbye
The one without questions and reasons why
Ooh I still believe
Yeah I still believe

What another chance could bring
Maybe another chance could heal my heart
In another time and place
We'll be again who we were and who we are

Cause I still believe in another goodbye
The one without questions and reasons why
Ooh I still believe
Yeah I still believe
