One Shot

Danny Vera

Tonight I'm diggin' up the dirt
I'm done with all the shit that hurts
Like a song that got stuck in to my head
And won't stop playing unless I'm dead

Where did I go wrong
Can I make it undone

All it takes is one shot
And I aim on letting go
But I know it's so hard
And I can't miss, no
All it takes is one shot

Alive, but more half-dead instead
I crawl under my bed
To hide from all those faces on the wall
I'll stay a sinner unless heaven calls

Where did I go wrong
Can I make it undone

All it takes is one shot
And I aim on letting go
But I know it's so hard
And I can't miss, no
All it takes is one shot

When my target's near
And when my shot is clear
And hesitation's not on my side
I know I'll get it right

All it takes is one shot
And I aim on letting go
But I know it's so hard
And I can't miss, no
All it takes is one shot
All it takes is one shot
