

Worn Out Man

Danny Vera

As I lie here on my back
I watch the sky and whisper that you're lying all the time
About what you once gave to me
And the things you said that seemed to be so right then
I believed in that

I will overcome the days without an end
It will free me from the roads without a bend
I won't sell my soul again to the ones who don't give a damn
I won't be a worn out man, no worn out man

Now true life did come my way
Cleared my mind from games you've played and directions for evil ways
The path I chose is the one for me
Without the lies and bribery I don't need them, I'm living wise

I will overcome the days without an end
It will free me from the roads without a bend
I won't sell my soul again to the ones who don't give a damn
I won't be a worn out man, no worn out man

The truth is what I'm gonna find
Mist outta my eyes

I will overcome the days without an end
It will free me from the roads without a bend
I won't sell my soul again to the ones who don't give a damn
I won't be a worn out man, no worn out man
