

Anyone But Me

Danny Worsnop

Ever been too blue for the bottle?
Too lost to go home?
All by yourself in a crowded room?
Too lonely to be alone?

As much as I wanna hold you
I know I won't hold on

I love you too much
To let you love me
And I know myself too well
To lead you on
So go love anyone
Please love anyone but me

Has your heart ever been broken?
Ever cried yourself to sleep?
Ever wished you never met someone?
I can't take that being me

That's all I ever leave
So baby I'm gonna leave

Cause I love you too much
To let you love me
And I know myself too well
To lead you on
So go love anyone
Please love anyone but me

I could lie to you
But I'm not going to

Cause I love you too much
To let you love me
And I know myself too well
To lead you on
So go love anyone
Please love anyone
I love you too much
To let you love me
And I know myself too well
To lead you on
So go love anyone
Please love anyone
Go love anyone
Please love anyone but me
Oh, but me
