

In Your Hands

Dante Bowe

You are my peace
Storm may be surrounding me, I'm free
Know that there's no way it conquered me
If You're the one fighting enemies
You are my peace

You take control
Of the things I do and do not know
Calling me back to the Father's throne
That was the place where I found my soul
Found my soul

I'm putting my life in Your hands, I'm putting my life in Your hands
I'm putting my life in Your hands, I'm putting my life in Your hands
I'm putting my life in Your hands, I'm putting my life in Your hands
I'm putting my life in Your hands, I'm putting my life in Your hands

Guide my feet
Everywhere I've been You've taken me
So I don't need to worry 'bout a thing
It's okay if You're guiding my feet
You're guiding me

You lift me up
And I can see the sunlight shining through my window pane
And learn to appreciate all the rainy days
I know You gave me grace in every moment
So everyday I'm giving what I owe You

I'm putting my life in Your hands, I'm putting my life in Your hands
I'm putting my life in Your hands, I'm putting my life in Your hands

I know that I ran from home (Won't fight the feeling)
This time I won't let go

So not matter what comes, I dey
In the hands of my God, I dey
Your armies are with me
Me wey no get bearing till You found me
You are for me, oh for me
Ten feet
Much further, far far further than the eye can see
When You check it
Oh check it oya check it

It's unmistakably, it's all in You
I find my power
Undeniable, I'm safe in You
I've found Your power
I've found Your power
I've found Your power
