

Need Somebody

Dante Bowe

Have you ever given your all to somebody
And still there was nothing in return?
Tried your best to break through all the walls
But you're the only one that ends up hurt

Have you cried all night till the early morning?
Checked your phone but nobody was calling?
Before it gets better it might get worse
I think that's how this works

We all, we all, we all
Need somebody
We all, we all, we all
Need someone
We all, we all, we all
Know what it's like to be broken
We all, we all, we all
Can't do it alone

I'm just learning how to let go
I won't grow cold, I won't grow cold no
Love can be good, love can be pain
So many stories way too hard to explain

I just cried all night till the early morning?
Checked my phone but nobody's calling?
Before it got better it got worse
I think that's how this works

We all, we all, we all
Need somebody
We all, we all, we all
Need someone
We all, we all, we all
Know what it's like to be broken
We all, we all, we all
Can't do it alone

We all, we all, we all
All gonna need somebody
We all, we all, we all
All gonna need someone
We all, we all, we all
Know what it's like to be broken
We all, we all, we all
All can't do it alone, no

Have you ever given your all to somebody
And still there was nothing in return?
Tried your best to break through all the walls
But you're the only one that ends up hurt
