

Diamonds Up In The Air

Dante Thomas

She told me
'TikTok's the place to be...'
She noticed, talkin' bout how she wants it all
Oh, she wants it all

She told me
'I use it for all instances'
Ask my mentors, 'Get these millions'
That's how I manifest uh
'With people like this who needs the real world at all?'

She's a model, she's an actor
She's a writer, she's a poet
She loves all the attention
And the views and shines the brightest up there
Like diamonds up in the air

He's a model, he's an actor
He's a writer, he's a poet
He loves all the attention
And the views and shines the brightest up there
Like diamonds up in the air

He told me bro
'TikTok's the place for that money and growth'
Livin' a Legend... He's platinum selling
He started his business
His profit is winning, he's gonna be rich
And he goes on and on and on
The list goes on and on and on
He met a girl online, Oh she's fine!
What does she do? He replied!

She's a model, she's an actor
She's a writer, she's a poet
She loves all the attention
And the views and shines the brightest up there
Like diamonds up in the air

He's a model, he's an actor
He's a writer, he's a poet
He loves all the attention
And the views and shines the brightest up there
Like diamonds up in the air
