

Something To Remember

Dante Thomas

At the sound of the alarm
The class broke through the door
School was finally over
Summertime break
Everyone was looking for fun
And maybe getting to some trouble

(Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa)
It don't matter
(Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa)
She's gone forever

Saw it someone new
There's nothing I can do
So I wrote a song for you

Here's something to remember me by
You and I and the way we used to kiss
I'm feeling like I never
Knew that it could sometimes come to this
Sometimes I forget
You're not always gonna be there
Like the day that you left
Oh-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

Back behind the bleachers
Headphones blaring so loud
Lost inside the music
Last time, here with friends
We were drinking, talking about
How we'll always be together

(Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa)
It don't matter
(Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa)
She's gone forever

I'm gonna be okay
Just not today

Here's something to remember me by
You and I and the way we used to kiss
I'm feeling like I never
Knew that it could sometimes come to this
Sometimes I forget
You're not always gonna be there
Like the day that you left
Oh-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

(Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa)
It don't matter, it don't matter
(Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa)
She's gone forever, gone forever

I'm gonna be okay

Just not today

Here's something to remember me by
You and I and the way we used to kiss
I'm feeling like I never

Here's something to remember me by
You and I and the way we used to kiss
I'm feeling like I never
Something to remember me by
