Danzel

Had to escape last night,
had the feeling I was drowning
Had to go and take a walk
Had to escape last night,
had the feeling I was choking
And I couldn't even talk

No one even cares to show me
Why you never been in love before
Why you never ever leave the door
Unlocked

I'm on my own tonight, I am feeling kinda lonely
And I wonder where you are
I'm on my own tonight
I could be the one and only
But I don't know where you are

No one even cares to show me
Why you never been in love before
Why you never ever leave the door
Unlocked

I cannot take it anymore
Why you never ever leave the door
Why don't you see me, underneath the stars
That guide me, they guide me to you

I was alone last night
I was hiding in the darkness
Till you suddenly came by
You asked me for a light and in the middle of the darkness
There was nowhere left to hide

And I'm sure that no one cares to show me
But I feel you wanna get to know me
Ooh I have never been in love before
And I'll show you if you just ... leave the door
