

But a Nightmare

Danzig

I am but a nightmare lurking in your darkest dream
Creeping like a phantom as your breathing starts to cease
I am just a devil waiting for your pulse to slow
Patiently just waiting 'til your glow is never more

I am just a specter floating right above your face
Siphoning your life force as your eyes begin to fade
I am but a devil, nothing more and nothing less
Preying on the weakest, harvesting the dead

I am but a nightmare living in your darkest dream
Creeping like a phantom as your breathing starts to cease
I am just a devil waiting for your pulse to slow
Waiting, ever waiting, waiting ever more
