

Lonely Blue Boy

Danzig

My name should be trouble
My name should be woe
For trouble and heartache is all that I know
I'm just a lonely, lonely blue boy
Oh, that's my name

My life has been empty
My heart has been torn
It must have been raining the night I was born
Well, I'm a just lonely, lonely blue boy
Oh, that's my name

Oh, I am so afraid of tomorrow
And so tired of today
They say that love is the answer
But love never came my way

I'm writing a letter
To someone unknown
So if you should find it and you're all alone
Well, I'm just a lonely, lonely blue boy
Oh, that's my name
I'm just a lonely, lonely blue boy
Oh, that's my name
