

Lord of the Thighs

Danzig

Down to who knows who, just to socialize
I'm waiting for my girls, when you caught my eye
You got the way to make a man
Honey, you got to understand
I'm your man, child, lord of the thighs

Well, well, Lord, what do we got here
She's flashin' 'cross the floor to make it perfectly clear
You're the bait and you're the hook
Someone bound to take a look
I'm your man, child, lord of your thighs

You must've come here to find it
You've got some hell in your eyes
Although you really don't mind it
I am the lord of your thighs

You must've come here to find it
You've got some hell in your eyes
Although you really don't mind it
I am the lord of your thighs

You must've come here to find it
You've got some hell in your eyes
Although you really don't mind it
I am the lord of your thighs

You must've come here to find it
You've got some hell in your eyes
Although you really don't mind it
I am the lord of your thighs
