See All You Were

Know you have a problem Can't you figure it Suddenly your lost alone As your statue splits

Now you walk this cruel world Lost among its pain See all you were in my world Never to regain

So you misbegotten Love so quickly fades So to be forgotten Tuned a grayer shade

See all you were in my world See all you were in mine

Now you know possession Million souls to steal Every night your death awaits Less and less to feel