Daphne Loves Derby

Believe me, I believe everything you say
Even if you claimed you heard a ghost sing songs
I think I know what you're doin', I'm away
But believe me, I'll believe they're simple mistakes

I've been worn away by birthday memories and galleries
Of pictures in my head of you when I'm away

Maybe we could make this space to talk about it
Forget about it for now, it seems so hard to do
And there's a constant pain in my head caused by sights
I'd rather forget, I hope this time it will fade away

I've been worn away by birthday memories and galleries
Of pictures in my head of you when I'm away
I'd do anything to keep this fear from flowing through my veins
Oh, I'd stay awake and fret just for you

I'd stay awake and fret just for you
I'd stay awake and fret just for you
I'd stay awake and fret just for you
I'd stay awake and fret just for you
