

Oh My

Dappy

'Cause she the baddest from time, oh my
Shoulda seen the way that ting just walked by, oh my
It's the way she parked it right there
We don't need no room in Ramada, aye
'Cause when she tease me and tease I move my hands away
I could do this all night
I know you want me dumpling, don't lie

I think her name was Kiana (oh my)
We were chatting and chatting, chatting away
About how her man loves giving her drama (oh my)
You the baddest of baddest up in here
It all started with a one look (one look)
Like babe your looks say you can cook (can cook)
Now I'm hooked off of one jook (one jook)
There's no need to lie

Y'all ain't right
Why try fight it if he ain't treating you nice
Then baby I will
Ain't no point in lying to be honest

There's no love, without no trust and yeah that goes for me and you
And this ain't nothing like before that's just me putting two and two
Let's just forget about your past, I beg you please don't get me started
If you wanna make this last we just gotta see this through
Sometimes you have to be disrespectful just so they notice you
Believe me whatever happens you know I'ma stay true
Look I'ma ride for ya, can't spend all my time with ya
But if you ever need a shoulder to cry on I got two for you
See nothing can ever come between us, nah nah
I'm done with all the rest, I just want your punana
And that ain't gonna change, I need more and more everyday
Fuck what anyone else has gotta say

'Cause she the baddest from time, oh my
Did you see the way that ting just walked by, oh my
It's the way she parked it right there
We gonna need that room in Ramada, aye
'Cause when she tease me and tease I move my hands away
I've been waiting all night
I know you want me dumpling, don't lie

I swear she had moves like Shakira (oh my)
We were chatting and chatting, chatting away
About how her man loves giving her drama (oh my)
She the baddest of baddest up in here
It all started with a one look (one look)
Like babe your looks say you can cook (can cook)
Now I'm hooked off of one jook (one jook)
There's no need to lie

Excuse me darling, what's your name, what's your number
Brushed me off, hey wait, said excuse me darling,
What's your name, what's your number
You don't wanna give that, and me saying oh my Got me chasing and chasing and now me saying oh my

Got me running and running and now me saying oh my
Had me ducking and ducking and now me saying oh my

And again got me saying oh my
Got me chasing and chasing, got me chasing it all night
Running and running and now be saying oh my
So next time that I call you make sure you come here on time
So fuck your ex yeah I know you mad at him
If I can't get ya then I'll get a badder ting
We can go chilling at the nicer Radissons
That ting there, she's bad

'Cause I been saying from time, oh my
Did you see the way that ting just walked by, oh my
It's the way she parked it right there
We gonna need that room in Ramada, aye
'Cause when she tease me and tease I move my hands away
I've been waiting all night
I know you want me dumpling, don't lie

I swear she had moves like Shakira (yeah)
We were chatting and chatting, chatting away
