

I'll Miss You Til I Meet You

Dar Williams

I tried again, I went last night
Another date was just not right
And as I drove myself back home
A little voice said, "Just be alone"
But sometimes I think I see you in a crowd
It's not picture perfect, you're just meant for me somehow

And I'll miss you till I meet you
I'll miss you till I meet you
Oh, I miss you all the time

I love the world just as it is
And I won't lose my faith in it
But there are days I think of you
Saying, "Hey, that's beautiful, yeah, I see it too."
It all goes by so fast, like waving hands
You want to capture things
Find someone who understands

And I'll miss you till I meet you
Oh, I'll miss you till I meet you
Oh, I miss you all the time

Can you keep me awake?
I thought you could help
Just to feel my way
Find my better self

Oh, I'll miss you
Oh, I'll miss you
Oh, I miss you all the time

The morning's gone, all dreamed away
But that's all right, it's Saturday
When people think that they might see
Another chapter, yeah, their destiny
And when Monday morning comes around
I'll get the work done, but I'll listen for the sound

And I'll miss you till I meet you
Oh, I'll miss you till I meet you
Oh, I miss you all the time
