

Simple Things

Dara Maclean

I'm learning to love
Learning to crash into you
To fall in your arms
Finding my rest here with you
I'm starting to see
You really love me for me
Made by your hands
Nothing more priceless to be

It's the simple things you do
The simple things you do
Still sounds so crazy
A love this amazing
A simple kind of love

You changed the game
When you gave yourself away
Can't stay the same
Mercy reminds me
Grace proved to me
That you are worthy of trusting
All that you say I am
That's enough for me

It's the simple things you do
The simple things you do
Still sounds so crazy
A love this amazing
It's the simple things you do
It's so simple loving you
Still can't believe this
I'll just receive it

Why would I make it, so complicated
When chasing perfection is so overrated
Wild, free and crazy
That's the way you love
So here's all my efforts
The trying, the striving
I know I'm accepted, I'm so done with fighting
The way you love
I can't help but love

The simple things you do
The simple things you do
Still sounds so crazy
A love this amazing
It's the simple things you do
It's so simple loving you
Still can't believe this
I'll just receive it

The way you love me is easy
It's effortless
And my soul, my soul's at rest
When I'm in your arms
