

Start Something

Dara Rolins

There's no time and no space unless I find a witness
There's no time for me to stay
There's no time and space unless I show my weakness
There's no time for me to stay

Keep rolling on till I start something new
Keep rolling on till I start something new

There's no time and no space unless I find a witness
There's no time for me to stay
There's no time and space unless I show my weakness
There's no time for me to stay

I can feel the rush explosion
Setting all my wheels in motion

Keep rolling on till I start something new
Keep rolling on till I start something new

I can feel the rush explosion
Setting all my wheels in motion
