

Cry Wolf

Dare

When you need someone
There's a lot to depend upon
Sometimes love can be cold

I called her name
From the broken dream
And from the darkness
Like a silver scream
I could feel the vengeance
Of a lonely child
She was called "The hunted"
She was running wild

I don't want your loving baby
I feel the vengeance for love
I don't need your loving baby
I can see you've got a vengeance for love
Everybody sing it now
I know it's only cry wolf
I can see it's only cry wolf

I saw the flames
Of her burning cross
Like the pride and the passion
That she knew she'd lost
Now she stands alone
Of her distant throne
Like a crying wolf
She is on her own

I don't wanna her loving baby
I feel the vengeance for love
I don't want your loving baby
I can see you've got a vengeance for love
Everybody sing it now
I know it's only cry wolf
I can see it's only cry wolf

I don't want your loving baby
I feel the vengeance for love
I don't need your loving baby
I can see you've got a vengeance for love
Everybody sing it now
I know it's only cry wolf
I can see it's only cry wolf
I know it's only cry wolf
I can see it's only cry wolf
