

Days Gone By

Dare

There's a cold wind in the air tonight
It takes me back to the memories
I close my eyes 'neath a million stars
And I remember

Can you hear the song on the radio?
It takes me there where I want to be
Where the river runs
When we were young
And you were there...
You were there...

So, where have all those days gone by?
Rolling like the river
In my heart you're by my side
In my heart you never left my side

She left the city late that summer
Running fast with the desert wind
She closed her eyes 'neath a million stars
And it was over...
And it was over now...

So, where have all those days gone by?
We can't stop the river
In my heart you'll never die
In my heart it never dies

One day they'll write a song for you... my love
One day they'll write a song for you, for you
